

supporting Black Maternal Health with Ovia

April 9, 2024 at 1 pm ET

Join Ovia's care team as we discuss ways Ovia's programs can recognize, celebrate, and support Black families throughout their childbearing journey. Ovia Health is committed to amplifying the voice of Black mothers and making a healthy, happy family possible for everyone.

We'll discuss:

- How to advocate for yourself with your healthcare provider
- Ways Ovia Health supports Black mothers with services like, breastfeeding support, postpartum help, and baby sleep coaching
- Current issues that affect Black maternal health in today's society
